APHS is a non-profit community based organisation operated by volunteers. As such we ask for a small donation for family history enquiries.

Your donation will go towards the up-keep and operation of the Angaston Blacksmith Shop & Museum and the Angaston History Centre.

BASIC ENQUIRY $20.00

Your query will be forwarded to our highly knowledgeable members who will contribute any information or anecdotes they have about the person or family you have enquired after. We will also search our archives for documents, images or items that may relate to your query. This will be information that is not readily available in the public domain. The details will be collated and sent to you via email. You are also welcome to book a time to visit the archives should there be items you wish to view.

DETAILED ENQUIRY $50.00

We have experienced family historians who can assist in more detailed research. In addition to the information we supply for a basic enquiry, we will conduct searches related to births, deaths, marriages and land titles records, plus access the Ancestry and Find My Past databases and search Trove for newspaper articles.

Although we mainly deal with the Angaston and Penrice area we can refer to our other contacts in the Barossa if needed or requested.
